

DEATH CALLS ON EX-GOV. ALTGELD

Stricken with Paralysis Addressing an Audience at Joliet.

DIED THIS MORNING

Sunk to the Floor Unconscious While Leaving Rostrum Last Night.

ENDS ACTIVE CAREER

Joliet, Ill., March 12.—Former Governor John P. Altgeld died here at nine o'clock this morning from a stroke of apoplexy received last night while delivering a pro-Boer lecture at the opera house.

Stomach Trouble the Cause The physicians diagnosed the attack as the result of stomach trouble and did not think heart weakness was primarily to blame. Whether the attack was brought on by the over-

GOV. ALTGELD.

heated condition of the hall or by the exhausting speech they could not tell.

End Without Warning
The end came without warning. Although he had been unconscious since midnight, there were no signs of the imminent approach of dissolution. Shortly before seven the only physician at the bedside, the others having gone to breakfast, noticed a shudder pass through his patient's frame and saw his grasp the bed clothing and then lay quiet.

The other physicians were hastily summoned and all methods known were resorted to but without avail and he was pronounced dead.

The governor's last words were spoken to a physician friend. He said, "How do you do, Doctor." A few moments later he lapsed into unconsciousness.

Immediately upon being taken to the room in which he died he begged that the newspapers should not be told of his illness, as it might get to the ears of his wife, who was ill.

From Over Elation
Over elation of spirits is ascribed as the cause of the fatal affliction.
Recently he made an anti-injunction argument before a judge known to be a believer in the principle of injunctions. The argument of the ex-Governor seemed to make a favorable impression on the judge, which greatly pleased Altgeld.

Following this manner in which his Buffalo speech of Saturday night was received by the press in the east added to his elation.

Delary's victory over Methuen was the climax and when he stepped on the platform last night his emotions had assumed complete mastery of him and in his intensely wrought up condition his none too robust constitution could not stay the fatal attack.

The body will be taken to Chicago this afternoon. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made, but the burial will probably be in the residence in Sheridan Park to Graceland cemetery. The deceased belonged to no church or secret society.

When the ex-governor took the platform he did not show any signs of illness, nor did he seem ill during the course of his speech.

Sympathies All With the Boers Throughout the progress of the war in south Africa Mr. Altgeld has been a strenuous advocate of the Boer cause. His speech last night in Joliet had been extensively advertised, and had taken on an especial interest since the announcement of the Boer success in the capture of Methuen.

It was noted during the address that the ex-Governor threw an unusual amount of energy and feeling into his words, and the collapse, the physicians think, resulted from overstrain-ing his physical powers.

England on Down Grade Governor Altgeld declared that General De Wet with his fighting farmers, was a more important factor in the progress of the world than was King Edward VII; that De Wet and his farmers represented the aspirations and hopes of the tolling millions of the earth in all lands who do the world's work and make civilization possible, while King Edward VII represented simply the parasitic classes that eat the substance of other men's toil.

He declared that England was on the downward grade and would in time pass off the maps of the world, and that if every Boer in South Africa were shot down the glory of their heroism would live through the eternities and be forever an inspiration to mankind.

NEWARK CROWDED WITH FARMERS

Best Attended Institute Ever Held in Rock County Will Furnish Program Today.

Newark, Wis., March 12.—The farmers' institute being held here is the best attended of any ever held in Rock county. Great interest is manifested in the proceedings by the farmers who are in attendance. The program yesterday as published in The Gazette was carried out except that A. L. Fisher, who was to read a paper on "Tobacco" and Clinton Babbitt, who was to speak on "Citizenship" were not present. Last evening County Clerk F. P. Starr read an interesting paper on "The Rights of Men" and Supt. Throne spoke on "Education and the Farmer."

This morning's session opened at 9:30 o'clock with a talk by Mr. Wylie on "Clover and Corn;" T. A. Carroll spoke on "Tilling" and Mr. Conway on "Buttermaking." At the closing session this afternoon the following program is outlined: "Farmers Telephones," Mr. Wyllie; "Outlook of Dairying," Thos. Inman; "Good Feeding," M. Convey; "Good Roads," A. C. Powers.

THINK IT VICTORY FOR UNION LABOR

Favorable Report for the Bill Limiting Conspiracy and Restraining Injunctions.

Washington, March 12.—Leaders of organized labor claim a big victory in a favorable report received today from the House committee on judiciary on the Grosvenor bill to limit the meaning of the word conspiracy and the use of restraining orders and injunctions in certain cases.

The bill provides that no agreement, combination or contract to do or to procure to be done, or not to do or to procure to be done, any act on contemplation or furtherance of any trade dispute between employers or employees shall be deemed criminal, nor shall therein be indictable for the crimes of conspiracy, if such act committed by one person would not be punishable as a crime, nor shall such agreement, combination or contract be considered as in restraint of trade or commerce, nor shall any restraining order or injunction be issued with relation thereto.

If enacted into law the bill, in the opinion of labor leaders, will vastly strengthen organized labor, and stop the abuse of injunction and restraining proceedings. It gives trade organizations the right to do whatever an individual may do under the law.

MEDAL CONTEST AT HIGH SCHOOL

torium. The speaking will be extempore and the judges are Dr.
Q. O. Sutherland, Mrs. Bosworth and Prof. A. J. Hutton. The final contest will be held on March 21. There are sixteen pupils entered as follows: Freshmen: Ruth Fifield, Grace Winterroth, Robert Jensen, Harold Nevers.

Lewis.

joy, Ava Dutton, Fred Wilkeson.

erty, Belle McLean, Lizzie Gravlén.

RATE-CUTTING STOPPED.

St. Paul Lines Issue Orders to Cancel
All Contracts.

St. Paul, Minn., March 12.—Traffic managers of the St. Paul-Chicago roads and of the north Pacific coast lines have issued orders to general freight agents to cancel immediately all contracts with shippers and to stop rate-cutting on all classes of traffic. Freight officials were excited over the news and displayed greater haste to comply with the orders than was ever shown before. In addition to secret contracts made with various shippers and of rebates allowed at times it has long been customary in the northwest, according to local officials, for the six eastbound St. Paul lines to agree upon special rates for certain articles, such as lumber, coal, flour, etc., to furnish shippers with a lower rate than published in their tariff sheets. The purpose was to allow certain big concerns some concessions and also to protect the immediate territory of the roads between Chicago and the twin cities by not letting the small shippers between know of the lower rate. Now all these concessions are swept away without a moment's warning. The action is due to the fear of prosecution by the United States district attorney of the northwestern states. General officials knew of the danger.

To Take Franchise from Women.

Frankfort, Ky., March 12.—The general assembly has adopted and sent to the governor approval a bill taking from the women of Kentucky the right to vote in school trustees' elections.
The bill was introduced by Mr. Klair of Lexington. In that city at the last general election the negro women controlled the election.

STATE OF ALARM IN ALL ENGLAND

Fears That Boers May Retaliate for Killing of Scheepers.

TO SHOOT METHUEN

Manner of Execution for the Boer Leader Made Burghers Wild for Revenge.

FACTS LEAKING OUT

London, March 12.—A painful war situation and an exasperating censorship have set London on edge. Nothing has been heard from Lord Methuen since his capture regarding his condition, and little is known of the movement of troops that formed part of his command, but who took no part in last Friday's combat.

The city is full of rumors, one of which is that Methuen's life is in danger. It is said that, as a measure of retaliation for the shooting and hanging of Boer prisoners, Dewet and Steyn may be tempted to do away with their distinguished prisoner.

Pro-Boers, however, scout this idea, declaring that it might lead to reprisals that would shock the world; that even Cronje and other burgher exiles might suffer at the hands of an enraged British soldiery.

Methuen Was in Error

It is rather a singular coincidence that only a few days ago Lord Methuen wrote that he believed the war would be over in a few months. He based this belief on the alleged willingness of sections of the Boer combatants to surrender, and, as he declared, upon a change in the attitude of the Boer women, who, from being remorseless in their hatred of the British, were now, he alleges, inducing their husbands and brothers to surrender. The general said in his letter that in many cases the women were acting as peace emissaries. The occurrences of the last few days, however, would indicate that General Methuen was mistaken in his beliefs.

An incident at this particular time, that reopens a distressing affair, adds greatly to the peril in which Methuen is placed. It is the publication of a private letter, detailing the execution of Commandant Scheepers by the British. The heartlessness in which it is alleged that execution was carried out gives a touch of barbarity to the grim affair.

Denied a Soldier's Death

Here is the story of a soldier who formed one of the hollow square, inclosed in which Scheepers met his doom:

"Commandant Scheepers was shot at 3 o'clock. They brought him from town in an ambulance van with a band playing and the firing party following behind. When they got him to his grave he begged to be allowed to stand up and face death, but they tied him down in a chair and blindfolded him. Then fifteen of the Coldstream guards stood ten paces from him and fired. The volley almost blew one side of him away, and it was a sickening sight. He must have been a brave man; he did not flinch or turn pale. They buried him as he was and broke up the chair upon which he sat, throwing the pieces on top of him."

When it is further added that the tune played by the band that conveyed Scheepers to death was a rollicking one and that the victim at the time was suffering from severe wounds the rage and horror excited among the Boers by the execution may be imagined.

It is in the hands of men imbued with these feelings that Methuen is now a prisoner, and in the circumstances it is easy to discern his perilous position.

TREASURY NOTE OF CIVIL WAR TIME

Brother of General Eom G. Farnsworth Finds Valuable Paper in Old Trunk at Beloit.

Beloit, Wis., March 12.—While going through an old trunk which had belonged to his brother, General Elom G. Farnsworth, who was killed in the battle of Gettysburg, J. M. Farnsworth of this city discovered a $20 compound interest treasury note dated August 15, 1864. The trunk had been used by Mr. Farnsworth's father to whom it had been sent after the general's death and the note is supposed to have been in the trunk for thirty-seven years. It was one of the notes issued by act of congress of June 30, 1864, and matured in three years, its value being $23.58. Mr. Farnsworth considers it priceless.

of Stoughton. The banner was awarded to Broadhead.

KAISER WEARY OF HIS CROWN

Franz Josef of Austria, is Ready To Quit His Throne.

ALARM AT VIENNA

Worthless Crown Prince Otto is a Profligate, Who Mal-treats His Wife.

FEAR FOR THE EMPIRE

Vienna, March 12.—The press of Austria, with the exception of the official and semi-official organs, now comment boldly on the prospective abdication of Kaiser Franz Josef.

Most of the papers take it for granted that the old emperor will soon renounce his throne, the only matter of speculation being the future of the empire which will fall into the hands of Crown Prince Otto, at present the most immoral member of the Hapsburg dynasty.

All sorts of scandals are laid at his door, not the least of which is his brutal treatment of his wife, whom he has beaten frequently. His son, the Archduke Charles, is 13 years old, and as a short life is predicted for his father he is next in line of succession. It will be remembered that Archduke Ferdinand renounced his rights to the throne of Austria-Hungary in 1891, when he married his sister's pretty lady in waiting, the Countess Sophie Chotek.

The reports of the abdication of the emperor are founded on his majesty's own utterance.
At the court banquet at Buda-Pesth Emperor Franz Josef, conversing with a recently pensioned officer, said:
"I, too, desire to go into retirement." As his majesty spoke these words his face was inexpressibly sad. It seemed to mirror all horrors of the great misfortunes which have befallen the house of Hapsburg during the last three decades.

Warns Civilized World

Vienna, March 12.—The Tagblatt in a sensational article printed today warns the civilized world that it has discovered that preparations are under way for the invasion of Europe by the Muslims from the Ottoman empire, northern counties of Africa, Soudan, Arabia, Persia, India and Afghanistan.

Sheldon of the Chicago Golf club and Sam Dugger of the Hinsdale Golf club.

Mr. Holabird's selection, it is expected, will meet with the approval of golfers in the West generally, as he has long been prominent in golfing affairs hereabouts. At present he is vice president of the association and hence is logically in line to succeed the present president, George R.
Thorne. The annual election will take place April 3.

The full ticket nominated is as follows:

club.

affairs are buzzing in this section.
There is a move on foot to increase the capital of the local independent land, also had a meeting last night and will build a line. Other centers in the southern part of the county are agitating telephone lines.

The Fairbanks, Morse & Co. strike

Soldiers Hurt in Railroad Accident.

Omaha, March 12.—Eight soldiers were injured, several of them seriously, at Fort Crook by the derailment of a Burlington coach on the train which brought the Twenty-second Infantry to the fort. The train was being sidetracked when one of the coaches was derailed and overturned.

Attorney L. E. Gettle, who was in this city over night, left on the morning train for his home in Edgerton.

SHEEP ARE GIVEN A STAGE FRIGHT

Theatrical Manager Introduces Live Flock in "As You Like It," to Create Realistic Effect.

Baltimore, Md., March 12.—In the interests of realism Manager Fawcett of Chase's theater has introduced live sheep in "As You Like It," which the local stock company is producing this week. At a special rehearsal Miss Atkinson, as Phoebe, equipped with a shepherd's crook, started out to practice with her peaceful flock. However, it could not be said that everywhere that Mary went the lamb was sure to go, for no sooner had the animals reached the open stage than they became frightened, and, bleating and bawling with terror, jammed first one exit and then the other. Several of them jumped into the orchestra onto the heads of the disconcerted musicians. Attaches, actors and musicians finally corralled the frightened sheep in one of the boxes. Manager Fawcett is now looking for a "bell wether" as the sheep leader.

WILL ADVANCE WAGES APRIL 1

Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Company Posts Notices in the Milwaukee Shops.

Milwaukee, March 12.—The Allis-Chalmers company posted in the shops here last night a notice that on and after April 1 a raise of 5 per cent would be made in the wages of all employees and that they would be given a Saturday half-holiday.
Edwin Reynolds said today that this increase in pay would not only effect the 2,500 men employed in the Milwaukee shops, but the 6,000 men in Chicago, Buffalo, Wilkesbarre and Scranton, Pa. This is about the increase demanded by the striking machinists.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND OUT ON A STRIKE

Boston Labor Trouble is Becoming More Serious—Senator Hanna May Act as Arbitrator.

Boston, March 12.—It is estimated that at least fifteen thousand are on a strike this morning. It is believed that within twenty-four hours the number will be largely increased. The lumber teamsters, coal handlers and teamsters and men who handle freight for the coast wise steamers went out this morning. The leader of the strikers have telegraphed Secretary Eastly of the civic federation stating that the strikers are agreeable to the mediation endeavoring to effect an immediate settlement. Mayor Collins this morning received a telegram from Hanna stating that he will gladly join in an effort to settle the strike.

Boston, Mass., March 12.—The general strike committee has decided to call out every union man who is actively engaged in the freight transportation business of Boston. Thirty thousand men, according to the official estimate of the labor men, are to quit work as soon as the strike order reaches them.

Mayor Collins, realizing the gravity of the situation, sent this appeal to Senator Hanna, asking him to invoke the influence of the arbitration committee of the National Civic federation to settle the strike.

"Serious strike of teamsters, expressmen and freight handlers now on against railroads and other transportation managers. Promises to spread unless immediately checked by wise and authoritative counsel, and this may be as calamitous as San Francisco strike. Seems to me an occasion to invoke influence of Civic federation, and I therefore appeal to you."

"PATRICK A. COLLINS, Mayor."

Denies Holleben Rumor

Washington, March 12.—The report that the German ambassador von Holleben has been recalled because he had in some manner displeased his government is emphatically denied by the state department.

H. S. McGiffin went to Deerfield this morning to receive tobacco of the farmers in that vicinity.

"COPPERHEADS" ARE TO BLAME

Funston Scores Philippine
"Peace Party" in His Chicago Speech.

FAULT IS AT HOME

But for Support Here, War Would Have Been Over
Two Years Ago.

TREAT NATIVES WELL

Chicago, March 12.—"I am one of those men who is for his country, right or wrong; but this time, thank God, my country is in the right. It makes no difference how much it costs, how many lives it means. We must go on until every rod of land in the Philippines acknowledges the sovereignty of the Stars and Stripes.
Then and not till then we will fight out among ourselves the proper disposition of the islands."

"Gentlemen, some time ago two poor fellows, colored soldiers of the Ninth cavalry, deserted and went over to the enemy. They were caught and hanged. It would be eminently more just—take this as you like, for I mean every word I say—if some of those alleged Americans who have lately signed a petition to congress asking for a conference with the Filipino leaders still in the field were hanged and their memory forever execrated by the American people."

No Apology for Bluntness

In these words General Frederick Funston facing 400 members of the Marquette club at a banquet in his honor last night, declared his position on the attitude of the government toward the Philippines and denounced the men who have been at the head of the agitation for the abandonment of the islands.

"These words that I am saying may be indiscreet," he went on, "but I believe the time has come when those who know the position of our government should speak out at least as boldly as those traitors who are seeking to pull down her prestige here at home."

Home "Traitors" to Blame

"I say deliberately, and I am only giving you the testimony, truthful and unsoftened, that Aguinaldo and a dozen other Filipino leaders have given to me personally, that the war would never have been continued for a day after January, 1900, if they had not been led to believe that the majority of the American people were against their own government."

Natives Always Well Treated

"Through all this wretched business I have never known a wounded Filipino or defenseless native to be maltreated or killed. So much for our critics."

"I am for my country, right or wrong, but in this case it is right.
There never has been a time when we could withdraw from the islands without a total disregard for our plain duty. The responsibility for the continuance of the resistance to our army should be placed where it is due. From the lips of Aguinaldo himself and from other leaders of the insurrection, I know that for the last two years they have been encouraged to shoot down our men and continue their warfare by the copper head sentiments of the people here in the states."

"The great mass of the natives do not know what independence is. Ninety-five per cent want to be left alone, and prefer to be governed by others than themselves. The case of Cuba has been held up to us as an example of what we could do in the far East."

OBJECT TO LOWTH SEWERAGE PLANS

AGAINST DUMPING IN THE RIVER BELOW THE DAMS.

Matter Was Discussed by the Twilight Club Last Evening—An Interesting Meeting, at Which Many Good Addresses on the Development of Science Were Given.

Under the leadership of Prof. Buell the Twilight club made a vigorous attack last night on the proposed action of the council, to accept a set of sewerage plans, in which it was proposed to dump the sewerage into the river consisting of Drs. Q. O. Sutherland, S. B. Buckmaster and M. G. Jeffris, were elected to call on the sewerage committee and voice the sentiment of the club against the proposed plan.

Developments in Science. The subject for the evening was "Developments in Science, and after the banquet the first sub-division, "Sanitary Disposal of Sewerage" was taken up by City Engineer C. V. Kerch. Mr. Kerch gave a brief review of the sewerage systems used in different large cities, and the different methods of disposing of the accumulations. He showed that a system that might be successful in one locality would not work in another.

Sewerage is considered under two heads, solids and liquids. The solids are known as garbage and the liquids as sewage. The problem of disposing of sewerage in thickly populated districts was infinitely harder to solve than would be the disposal in the country. Different places had different methods, and each had its good points. Crematories and Septic plants were in use in many places, while others passed sewerage into the adjacent streams. On account of disease being spread in this way many cities were adopting the septic tank system.

Spread of Disease. The second sub-division was "Communicable Diseases." As this was an important topic, Prof. Buell stated that he had secured Prof. Frost of the University of Wisconsin. Prof. Frost stated that under this head came all diseases that were communicated from individual to individual, and are really animal diseases. The germs are very hard to tell apart but only a certain kind of disease comes from a certain germ.

Statistics show that in the United States one death in seven is the result of tuberculosis. That in the United States at the present time 1,200,000 people die annually from tuberculosis in some form. It is a relief to know that the disease can be cured. Tuberculosis leaves its mark on every one ever affected by it. It was shown by post mortem examinations of an immense number of subjects of 40 years of age and upwards that almost all of them had tuberculosis in some form or another at some time in their lives. Those who recover are not the exception.

Danger in Sewerage. Typhoid fever was caused by the germ being taken into the system and that there was no danger in turning sewerage into a stream no matter how large or how long. Malaria is caused by mosquitoes and people who have been experimenting in this matter, and they can live in malarial districts all right if protected from mosquito bites.

In speaking of diseases where quarantine is established Prof. Frost stated that people should be kept in quarantine as long as dangerous to public health. He stated that if a person told you people lived longer in old times than at the present not to believe it. In the 17th century the average life was 13 years, in the 15th, 20 years, in the 19th, 36 years and at the present in Chicago it is 39 years.

The terrors of smallpox were greatly decreased, in Germany in 1870 the average death rate from this disease was three in a thousand, now since vaccination is kept up, it is three one hundredths of one in a thousand. The average death rate from typhoid fever used to be three for every thousand inhabitants, since the introduction of clear water into the various cities it is about three tenths of one for every thousand. Since the introduction of anti-toxin the danger death from diphtheria was very small. People were learning how to protect themselves so that soon death from any of these diseases would be as uncommon as death from a snake bite.

To Oppose Lowth Plans. Senator Whitehead inquired of Engineer Kerch in regard to the plans proposed for sewerage in this city and was told that the Lowth plans were to be adopted. They planned to empty the sewerage into the river. Alderman Judd was also called upon and stated that the plans called for open sewers into the river. That the committee had visited several cities where the same plan was being used and there was no trouble.

Prof. Frost stated that they were building a septic plant at Madison for the disposal of the sewerage and although not complete the tests were satisfactory. He stated that if the city was to put in sewerage the best system possible would be the most economical. The element of danger from sewerage was slight even if no water ran over the dams.

Dr. Buckmaster was called upon and thought the proposed system was exceedingly dangerous. After considerable argument on the question the committee named at the beginning of this article was appointed to voice the sentiments of the club against sewerage being emptied into the river between the dams.

Progress of Electricity. "Modern Developments in Electricity" were explained in detail by P. H. Korat, who with the help of Prof. Arbutnot, exhibited a Nuernst light, one of the latest achievements in electricity and is the nearest to the light of the sun of any yet invented.

Prof. Buell stated that the subject of "Submarine Telegraphy" would have to be named as Prof. Towbridge of the University had no machine suited for a direct current. His machine is for an alternating current and he could not get another machine ready in time for the meeting.

Magic Mirrors of Japan. Prof. Mendenhall of Madison took up the losing topic, "Magic Mirrors of Japan." These mirrors had been used in China for 1,000 years and in Japan for 800. They were a cast metal mirror, made of composition of copper, tin, lead and quicksilver. They had a religious significance besides domestic value. The magic property of the mirror was that when they reflected a strong ray of light they showed in the screen the figures on the back of the mirror. The face of the mirror is highly polished and the back is covered with raised or depressed figures.

Ladies' Night Next Meeting. After Prof. Mendenhall's topic C. L. Fifield moved that it be the sense of the club that the next meeting be banquet and ladies' night, and that the leader appoint a committee of three to be in charge, and also that the chair appoint the committee to arrange the program for the next season.

On motion of M. G. Jeffris the committee who arranged the present season's program was re-appointed, they being C. L. Fifield, T. S. Nolan and Stanley B. Smith. Mr. Jeffris also moved that a rising vote of thanks be tendered the Madison gentlemen who took part.

A. E. Matheson moved the chair appoint a committee of three to award the prizes of $10 and $5 respectively to the schools having the best school yards and showing the most improvement for the year. The prizes were donated by the last year's committee, Edwin Fifield, T. O. Howe and A. E. Matheson. These committees will be announced by Prof. Buell in a few days.

WISCONSIN FIRMS FURNISH THE PLANT

The Tabasco & Chiapas Trading and Transportation Co., of Chicago, is about to erect a ship building plant at Chiapas, Mexico, and have placed an order for $2,000 worth of machinery for the plant with the New Doty Mfg. Co., of this city. The order includes a punch machine, an iron shearing machine and a rolling machine, that will roll in a sheet of iron 16 feet square. It speaks well for a local firm when they are able to send products into the southern parts of Mexico. The electrical supplies of the ship building plant will be furnished by the Warthun Electrical Supply Co., of Madison, and the engine will be furnished by a Beloit firm. Wisconsin firms will furnish about $7,000 worth of machinery for the plant.

BRAIN LEAKS.

The man who waits for something to turn up is never disappointed—but it is usually his toes. There are a number of men in this country who are travelling on the reputation their fathers made. Worrying about troubles that may come is like taking medicine for a disease that we are afraid we may contract.

This is the season of the year when nine men out of ten are preparing to put $100 worth of work on a $1.75 garden. Disease and death would disappear forever if every young medical graduate understood his business as well as he thinks he does.

The young man who works just hard enough to hold his situation is scarcely of chances for promotion. The young man whose chief ambition is to accumulate a large stock of needles usually becomes the husband of a woman who has to hustle to supply the family larder.—Will M. Maupin in the Commoner.

SORTING ROOM IN A TOBACCO HOUSE

How the Work is Done in One Jamesville Warehouse—Assorters Are All Girls and Women.

Did you ever visit a tobacco assorting room where one hundred persons were at work? It is a most interesting sight and can be seen in many places in this city, especially at the large warehouse of L. B. Carle & Son on the corner of North Franklin and West Bluff streets. The assorting room extends from Franklin to River street and occupies the entire basement.

A row of assorting tables extend along the entire north side of the basement and thin rows of tables extend across the Franklin street end, furnishing tables for about eighty assorters. In addition to the assorters there are inspectors, packers, bunchers and other floor help making the entire force about one hundred.

The assorters are all girls and women, ranging from the sprightly miss of sixteen to the sedate and portly matron of fifty. Most of the assorters have had several years' experience in warehouse work and receive pretty fair wages, while a few are novices and do not get as much, as all get a certain price per hundred pounds for assorting.

An assorting table is made by constructing a shelf about four feet wide of boards placed along the side of the room about waist high. About every four feet on the shelf partitions about six inches high are placed, making each table about four feet square. At the right hand corner of the table near the edge next to the assorter are driven wooden pegs about inches high and about four inches apart, making about a dozen pegs for the different grades and sizes.

A bundle of tobacco, weighing from 25 to 40 pounds is placed on the left side of the table and the assorter grabs a handful of leaves, shakes them thoroughly and with quick eye and deft fingers rapidly assort and sizes the leaves into about a dozen grades and sizes. When the places between the pegs are filled the various grades are tied into "hands" of from four to sixteen leaves each.

The hands are thrown under the table and soon are collected by an inspector, who lays each hand on a table on which is marked the standard lengths, and the various lengths separated.

The packer then packs the tobacco into boxes thirty inches wide and deep and of different lengths to suit the different lengths of tobacco. About 200 pounds of tobacco are packed in each box and the cover is nailed on. The box is placed on the elevator, raised up to the store room and piled up with thousands of others to await the sweating or fermenting process which occurs during the hot weather of summer.

The assorting room of Messrs Carle is a veritable hive of industry and one hundred skilled workers in one immense room is a novel and interesting sight. On one side of the room are huge piles of bundles, sufficient to keep the girls at work for a long time. Railroad shipments of bundles are received frequently from outside points and the assorting season will continue for several months. The assorting room is heated by steam and lighted by electricity, and is equipped with everything tending to expedite the work and promote the comfort of the employees.

From seven to eight hundred dollars is paid out per week in wages and in the above warehouse and contributes not a little to the welfare of those who labor for a livelihood, and also promotes the general welfare of the entire city.

"KING DODO" AT THE MYERS GRAND

What will without doubt constitute the most brilliant event of the amusements of this city, will occur tonight at the Myers Grand, when that most successful of all the ever-famous musical productions "King Dodo" will make his royal debut, with all the glittering pageantry, tuneful melody and irresistible comedy which distinguishes his rollicking reign for more than five months in Chicago, where at every performance this monarch of Momus, with his host of clever courtiers and retinue of beautiful girls, was hailed with such acclamation of praise and delight that his praises has resounded throughout the land. "King Dodo" is to the west what "Florodora" is to the east, the most successful production of its class known to the present day stage, and the presentation here should mark a red letter event to all who delight in a really brilliant performance.

INTENSE SUFFERING.

From Dyspepsia and Stomach Trouble. Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets

A New Discovery, but Not a Patent Medicine. Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable case of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered, to my knowledge, for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gases in the stomach. He had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night.

"I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediately relief was given, and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured.

"There was no more acidity or sour, watery risings, no bloating after meals the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between ten and twelve pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh.

"Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harmless and containing nothing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal.

"Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by Local Application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed, it swells and shuts off the passage. It is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. J. C. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. LABOR AND PRICES.

The "Wall Street Journal" was recently asked the question, "Has there been severe depression in prices of securities in this country when labor was fully employed." For the reply the "Journal" publishes the percentage of labor employed in the United Kingdom during the four decades from 1860 to 1900, also a table covering the same period, giving the price of railway stocks in New York. The employment table is as follows:

Year	Percentage of Labor Employed
1860	90
1870	91
1880	92
1890	93
1900	94

Now compare this with the table following, showing the high and low point in the stock market, remembering also that the prices are those of American railway stocks in New York, while the employment ratios are those of labor in the United Kingdom. Our record of average prices does not go back to 1860, but with the war and the inflation of the currency quotations of stocks between 1860 and 1865 could not be considered fairly representative. The starting point for modern compilations of stock prices was in 1868, when the reaction after the inflation immediately following the war was felt. The year 1868 was a low point, followed by the rise to 1872, from which time our figures run as follows:

1872...High point 60 stocks	76.57
1877...Low point 60 stocks	36.33
1881...High point 60 stocks	99.80
1885...Low point 60 stocks	41.25
1890...High point 20 stocks	78.01
1896...Low point 20 stocks	41.82
1901...High point 20 stocks	117.02

It will be observed that the low point in stocks and the employment of labor was in the same year—1868; the same at the next high point in 1872, the same at the next high point in 1881, the next low point in 1885, and the next high point in 1890.

In 1857, the low point in prices came a year earlier than the low point in labor, while in the last decade the low point in labor abroad came coincidentally with the panic in this country in 1893 rather than with the low point of labor here, which did not come until about 1896. The high point in labor abroad came in 1899 instead of in 1891 or 1892 as it has done here thus far. The improvement of labor was in the same year—1868; the same at the next high point in 1872, the same at the next high point in 1881, the next low point in 1885, and the next high point in 1890.

In 1877, the low point in prices came a year earlier than the low point in labor, while in the last decade the low point in labor abroad came coincidentally with the panic in this country in 1893 rather than with the low point of labor here, which did not come until about 1896. The high point in labor abroad came in 1899 instead of in 1891 or 1892 as it has done here thus far. The improvement of labor was in the same year—1868; the same at the next high point in 1872, the same at the next high point in 1881, the next low point in 1885, and the next high point in 1890.

The Wall Street railway stock market is usually a safe barometer. When this class of stocks are depressed, and the market is weak, the cause is on account of light earnings, and inability to pay dividends. When times are good, transportation companies are loaded with business, and stocks increase in value.

With good times such as exist today labor is in active demand, and it is safe to say that 99 per cent. of it is finding steady employment in this country. The tramp and disgruntled element would absorb the other one per cent. The percentage of idle capital is greater today than the percentage of idle labor, and these conditions exist not only in good times, but to a greater degree when times are depressed. There is nothing so timid as capital, and this timidity is not confined to men who hold large blocks of property or inflated bank counts.

In times of uncertainty, when values are depressed, millions of money the property of small capitalists retires from sight. This class of property, in large degree, belongs to the laboring classes. More than 5,000,000 of this class are regular savings bank depositors today, and another million are putting their savings into homes. This important element in the great labor world, never have any contention with capital, because the representatives have discovered not only the art of saving, but the important fact as well, that money in itself is helpless, and that profitable investment and the ability to make money with money, is an art that many good men do not possess.

The man who can handle a business, a corporation, either industrial or commercial, and make money for the capital with which he is intrusted, is a blessing to the labor world and is so regarded by all intelligent artisans who possess the ability and disposition to live within their income, and save a few dollars for a rainy day. When stocks are firm, and industries are prosperous, labor of all kinds shares in the benefits, and employment is easy to obtain.

AN AGE OF PROGRESS.

"The commercial and Financial World," gives some interesting statistics, compiled by the Treasury Bureau concerning the growth and development of the country. They are well worth reading, and should inspire in every heart a spirit of pride and thankfulness. The age is a wonderful age, not only in discovery and invention, but in progress and development. The American citizen has occasion to be proud of his country.

The statistics referred show that the cotton produced has increased from 155,556 bales in 1800 to 9,436,416 bales in 1900; the wool produced, from 35,802,114 pounds in 1840 to 302,502,328 pounds in 1901; wheat from 151,999,906 bushels in 1866 to 522,229,505 bushels in 1901; corn from 876,946,295 bushels in 1866 to 2,105,102,516 bushels in 1900; copper from 650 tons in 1850 to 270,588 tons in 1900; pig iron from 165,000 tons in 1850 to 15,800,000 tons in 1901, petroleum from 21,000,000 gallons in 1860 to 2,661,233,568 gallons in 1900; coal from 2,358,599 tons in 1850 to 267,850,000 tons in 1901, and gold from $50,000,000 in 1850 to $79,171,000 in 1900.

During the period under consideration exports of merchandise have grown from $9,871,780 in 1800 to $1,487,746,991 in 1901; the per capita in 1800 being $13.37 and in 1901 $18.81. The imports of merchandise have grown from $91,252,768 in 1800 to $323,172,165 in 1901, while the per capita imports have fallen from $17.19 in 1800 to $10.58 in 1901.

Turning to the figures which show the net results of these developments, those relating to wealth, circulation, deposits, etc., the tables show that the wealth has increased from $7,132,780,000 in 1850 to an estimated $94,500,000,000 in 1900; the per capita wealth, from $207.69 in 1850 to $1,235.86 in 1900. The public debt less cash in Treasury was in 1865, $76.98 per capita, and in 1901 was $13.44 per capita; while the interest on the public debt which in 1867 was $143,781,592 had fallen to $32,342,797 in 1901.

The figures of money in circulation show in 1860 a total of $435,407,252, and in 1901, $2,175,387,277. The circulation per capita in 1860 was $13.85; in 1901, $28.02. The deposit in savings banks in 1860 was $0.973,301; in 1882, fifty three years later, they were $1,024,856,787 and by 1901, a further period of only eighteen years, had reached $2,597,094,580. Meanwhile the National banking system had come into operation, and in 1865 the deposits in national banks were $500,910,873; in 1880, $1,006,452,553, and in 1901, $3,044,600,000. The number of depositors in savings banks grew from 55,055 in 1839 to 1,067,061 in 1866, and 6,358,723 in 1901. Railways grew from 9,021 miles in 1850 to 199,375 in 1901; and freight carried one mile increased from 39,322,209,249 tons in 1882 to 141,162,109,413 tons in 1900, freight rates falling meantime from 1.24c per ton per mile to 75-100th of one cent per ton per mile.

This great wealth that has come to the nation, is more evenly distributed than the wealth of any other nation. It will be noticed that the per capita in 1900 was over $1,200. It is safe to say that it has increased at least 25 per cent. in ten years.

The argument is sometimes used by socialists, that the entire wealth of the country should be put into a common pool, and equally divided. If that were done, the distribution would amount to about $1,500 per capita. That would be the greatest misfortune that could befall the country. The man who has reached middle life without a dollar to the good, would never know what to do with $1,500, and in less than two years it would be back in its legitimate channel. The country is prosperous, and the development marvelous. Every able bodied man may be a capitalist if he will.

President Roosevelt has acted wisely, in declining to permit his daughter to attend the coronation, as the guest of royalty. If she could go as a simple girl, conditions would be all right but this would be impossible. She is the daughter of the chief executive of the nation, and would receive the same marked attention, as would the member of a royal family from any other country. This would be embarrassing to the President, as well as the nation.

Who shall occupy the front row at public functions in Washington, is one of the weighty questions now under discussion. Common courtesy would suggest that foreign ambassadors are entitled to consideration, and the sacrifice of a little official dignity. The question is too insignificant to create a disturbance, and should be so regarded.

The Business Men's Association is doing good work, and the spirit manifest, to pull together for the best interests of the city, is very gratifying. The money loaned to the Marzuff Co., is a safe investment from a business standpoint and the industry is a benefit to every business man in the city.

A Chicago electrician has discovered a device for cutting iron and steel plate, a carbon and a small voltage is all that is necessary. The ordinary bank vault can be entered in about seven minutes. The discovery may prove a weapon in the hands of burglars.

The defeat and capture of General Methuen indicates that the South African war is by no means a thing of the past. The Boers have so many sympathizers in all parts of the world, that England is contending with forces that do not appear on the field.

TO THE POINT.

The following terse paragraphs are among the things that Senator Spooner said in his great speech, on the Philippine question:

It does not lie, I think in the mouths of Democratic senators here to charge upon the republican party responsibility for the duration of hostilities in the Philippines. I stand here to say Mr. President—I say it regretfully, I say it with no spirit of unkindness in my heart—that in the main, in my judgment, the responsibility for the duration of this struggle in the Philippine archipelago is upon the minority party in this country.

Mr. Bryan, an extraordinary brilliant man, of wonderful personal magnetism, the leader of his party, proceeded, with his associates, to make the political issue of "imperialism," assuming that the Republican party its administration, led by President McKinley, would, unless prevented by this issue, commit this government to colonialism or imperialism. I say it was a scintillous issue.

I cannot tell, no one can tell, how long ago but for the Philippines might have been pacified. We cannot know how many millions of dollars and how many lives this unfortunate attitude cost the country, but that it cost many millions and many lives is certainly true.

That was not only the natural effect, and there is abundant evidence of it.

At any rate, they were led to believe that if they would only hold out until October Mr. Bryan could be elected and they would receive their independence—the strongest possible motive to induce them to continue. It is no wonder that Aguinaldo told his men to redouble their hostilities, to shoot down more American soldiers, to ambush more of our boys over there.

In one hand they carried the musket and in the other the school book. I do not know in all history a parallel, taken all in all, to the operations which have been conducted in the Philippines in this respect; and I believe it to be true if we could all have been united, if we could all have moved forward to the accomplishment of the great purpose of pacification—not subjugation, but pacification and upbuilding—vastly greater results would have been obtained.

They passed many great civil acts, the central-government act, the provincial government act, the municipal code (local self-government act), the education all act, the acts creating courts of justice, a code of civil procedure, the constabulary act, a civil service act, the board of health act.

Let me refer for a moment to what has been done in the matter of education. Senators find nothing in that to commend, nothing except to criticize: Total number of pupils enrolled in the public day schools, 177,325; average daily attendance, 105,000; enrollment in night schools, 20,000; a grand total of 197,000; grand total average attendance of 114,000. Total expenditures of 1901, $800,000. Pay roll for December, $100,000.

The schools are crowded with intelligent children, children eager to learn and a friend of mine told me that he attended one of the schools and the aisles were filled with mature people, anxious to learn to read and to understand the English language.

I stand, Mr. President, where I have always stood from the first upon this subject. I dreaded the assumption of the burden. I did not believe, nor do I now, in permanent dominion of the United States in the Philippine archipelago. At the same time, I never expect the flag of the United States to depart from that archipelago.

PRESS COMMENT.

Madison Journal: If Whitehead was put up like Jerome of New York, or some of these fighting bumptious fellows, he'd get out on the stump and make the sparks fly over the heads of these fellows who say he is impossible because he stands for law enforcement, etc. Perhaps he will later.

Marshfield Times: It is a noticeable fact that the democratic papers of the state are giving more editorial space to the republican party in their fight for the governorship, than they are to their own party. The Wausau Herald last week contained almost two columns of editorial matter on the candidacy of Senator Whitehead, but not one word appeared in reference to the democratic party, or a possible candidate on the ticket for governor.

The statement that the German-American people of Wisconsin will view with apprehension the election of Senator Whitehead as governor, is an affront to the intelligence of Wisconsin's best citizenship.—La Crosse Republican-Leader.

Oshkosh Northwestern: New York is planning to install automobile street-carts in connection with its dump-cleaning department. Next will be horseless garbage wagons and just as the ordinary man finds that he has saved enough to purchase an "auto" he will discover that the fad has gone out of fashion.

If the magnetic healer who attempted to magnetize a glass of water for a Fond Du Lac jury had only been as skillful in his manipulations as Herrmann or Keller, he would have passed around a glass of beer and his acquittal would have been both prompt and unanimous.—Oshkosh Northwestern.

CLOSE WATCH AT LAKE KOSHKONONG

Game Warden Drafiel and Another Deputy Made a Good Hunt at the Lake Recently.

Monday afternoon Deputy Game Warden Peter Drafiel, accompanied by another deputy, left here for Lake Koshkonong, to look after the illegal hunting that was reported going on around the lake. They arrived at the lake late Monday night and early Tuesday morning made their way by land down among the mounds on the east bank of the river, near the foot of the lake where there are a number of shanties built along the shore, owned by hunters and fishermen.

They kept out of sight and shortly after daylight were rewarded by seeing a couple of hunters from one of the shanties go down to a blind on the shore and get ready for the day's sport.

They did not have long to wait as the ducks were plenty and the sport soon began. The hunters were just nicely started when the game wardens made a descent on them and caught them in the act. The men refused to give their names, but the wardens took their guns, two boats, a field glass, several ducks and also confiscated their shanty.

Here they found a large amount of hunting traps, about fifty black bass and a large headlight lantern such as is used for spearing fish and spearing on geese out on the ice. The wardens secured the boats and closed up the shanty, putting a state confiscation tag on the door.

They then took the guns, ducks, fish, field glasses and other plunder and brought them to this city where the fish and ducks were disposed of to the highest bidder.

They secured warrants in this city for the violators, and will return to the lake to get the men and dispose of their shanty. State Game Warden Overbeck is determined to put an end to the illegal hunting on Lake Koshkonong if he has to send twenty wardens down there to patrol the lake.

Koshkonong has the name of being the most lawless shooting place in the state and gives the wardens more trouble than all the rest of the duck hunting places in the state put together. This may be because it is more closely watched than any other lake in the state. As long as there is a law prohibiting spring shooting there is no reason why one class of men should shoot and the others live up to the law. Koshkonong is liable to be an unhealthy place for the spring shooter this year.

INTERCHANGEABLE MILEAGE TICKETS

Western Lines' Passenger Agents in Session in Chicago Today—May Abolish Those Tickets.

This afternoon the general passenger agents of the Western lines are holding a meeting at Chicago, at which the fate of the interchangeable mileage tickets now in use will be definitely settled. It is expected that the meeting of passenger agents will culminate the long and drawn-out controversy in regard to the system.

According to a local passenger agent, there will be two questions to decide before this meeting has adjourned. The question of the interchangeable mileage books is well known to the traveling public. It is a matter of increasing the number of miles to be traveled before a rebate can be secured from 2,000 to 3,000, the former being the minimum at this time.

The other question concerns Wisconsin more than any other state. Some time ago it was announced that through the efforts of a traveling salesman's association, several lines in this state agreed to interchange the regular mileage books in vogue for many years on all lines. In this system the conductor tears off a strip from a long one in the book, the traveler paying in this way for any number of miles he desires to go. The Wisconsin Central's books are interchangeable with other lines in this state, although none of the other lines have adopted the system as regards their rivals except the one stated.

The introduction of this system in Wisconsin has caused quite a stir it appears, and an effort will be made by lines to have it abolished.

WILLIAM BYRNE VS. COLLIN C. MACLEAN

The Plaintiff is Allowed Thirty Days to Amend His Complaint, by Judge Clementson.

The case of William Byrne against Collin C. MacLean was taken up yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the circuit court by Judge Clementson. On the opening of the case Charles E. Pierce attorney for MacLean, objected to any testimony being taken under the complaint for the reason that no cause of action had been alleged. Byrne was taken back by the claim of the defense and stated that this was the first time in his long practice of the law that such a question had arisen.

Judge Clementson after listening to arguments on both sides sustained the objection of the defense and on payment of costs Byrne was allowed thirty days in which to amend his complaint.

The case of Lawrence Cronin vs. the Janesville & Southeastern railroad company was taken up this morning and is now on trial. WILL BOWL AT MADISON TONIGHT Picked Team from Janesville Expects to Return Home with Scalp in Their Belt.

There is going to be a bowling contest in Madison tonight between a picked team from this city and a team picked from among the finest in the Capital City and its dollars to doughnuts that the Janesville boys come back with the laurel wreath of victory upon their brows. The valiant and true warriors who will go forth from this city are: Robert Hockett, Dr. James Gibson, Harry Piper, Horace Rice and Frank Tuttle with Fred Hennig as substitute.

The Janesville team left at 1:40 over the C. M. & St. P. R. R. and will return on the 4:30 train Thursday morning. A number of bowling enthusiasts are expected to accompany the team so that the party will consist of about a dozen persons.

The contest will consist of three games, total number of pins to count and will take place in Prof. Kiehl's alley. If the Janesville team wins tonight the Madison team will pay their expenses. If Janesville loses the local team will have to pay their own expenses. The Madison team will play a return game in the near future under similar conditions.

The Janesville team have been making some excellent scores of late and can make it decidedly interesting for the Madison bowlers, who are also known to have made some very large scores. It will be a very interesting contest at all events.

ANOTHER REMARKABLE CURE OF A WELL KNOWN CITIZEN

Chronic Diseases Daily Cured Which Have Always Been Regarded as Incurable Coming From Miles Around to Be Healed by the Boy Phenomenon, Who May Be Consulted at the Hotel Myers

It's astonishing how good news will spread. From every ward and street come reports of people being cured by the wonderful cures being performed by the Boy Phenomenon. Truth, genuine merit, skill, a wonderful gift of healing, and honorable methods are sure to receive their just rewards, and it is upon and along these lines that he has secured the confidence of the public. So many cures have been accomplished that it is next to impossible to investigate them all, but a few will be given publicity each day for the benefit of the afflicted who are desirous of investigating some cure before undergoing treatment.

When anything that promises relief is offered you, the first thing you want to know is, if it ever cured any one else, and what is more important, if they stayed cured, and the amount of faith you will have in trying it will depend upon the reliability of the testimony offered in its behalf. When this is from remote strangers way beyond the reach of your consultation, doubts are sure to arise, but when it comes from disinterested people whom you know as your citizens and neighbors and disinterested people you know and can consult any time, its reliability is apparent—its truth is not to be doubted.

The wonderful recovery of Mr. Geo.
W. Crossman, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, residing at 54 Terrace street, was so wonderful that it even surprised the physician in charge. His simple statement is contained in a letter to the Boy, expressing his heartfelt gratitude for the great benefit he derived.

To Whom It May Concern
I have been afflicted for fifteen months with a diseased ankle, whether it is rheumatism or an affection of the joint I am unable to say. I was confined to the house three months suffering severe pain. I used crutches all summer and lately a crutch or cane. For the last two months, there has been little or no improvement. I was persuaded by friends to receive treatment at the opera house by that wonderful boy.
I felt an improvement from the beginning. I have taken three treatments, and am gaining right along. I walked down town today without crutch or cane, the first time in over a year. I can attribute it only to the magic touch of that boy, as I had discarded liniments as useless.

This communication is unsolicited from any person, and I feel grateful for the benefit received.

GEORGE W. CROSSMAN, 54 Terrace Street,
Janesville, Wis., March 10, 1902.

SUGAR BEET MEN ARE DEFEATED

Test Vote in House Caucus Stands 79 to 61 Against Them.

HOAR OPPOSES POPULAR VOTE.

Less Danger in Abandoning Present System of Electing Senators, Content ing It is a Breach of Pledge to State When the Government Was Formed

Washington, March 12.—Beet sugar has lost the fourth round in the great Cuban fight. Last night's conference of the Republican members of the House was adjourned until next Tuesday night without action. This is a victory for Speaker Henderson and his lieutenants, who are now fighting the battle of the Roosevelt administration, and who are also struggling to maintain their leadership and prestige in the organization of the House. They wanted an adjournment and the beet sugar forces insisted upon a decisive vote. Adjournment was carried by a vote of 79 to 61.

Speaker Henderson himself made the motion to adjourn till next Tuesday. This was at midnight, after four hours of passionate and at times bitter debate. Mr. Littlefield of Maine at once moved to amend by striking out Tuesday and inserting "sine die." This brought the contest to close quarters. If the best members could force an adjournment without the vote victory was theirs. Vote was taken by tellers, and the anxiety on both sides was intense as the members gathered to pass between the count-keepers. Speaker Henderson, in evening dress, a cigar between his lips and a smile of confidence on his face, was the first to walk through. He then turned to watch the others.

When the result was announced—61 for adjournment sine die and 79 for another conference next Tuesday—the speaker and his managers and faithful adherents clapped their hands in glee. The formal vote on the original motion was quickly taken, and stood 72 yeas to 64 nays. The fourth round was over.

It is a triumph for the President and for the friends of Cuban reciprocity. But the bitterness remains. No more angry crowd of men ever walked out of the hall of the House than were the beet people of the West when they started home at half-past twelve this morning. They denounced President Roosevelt, the speaker, the "powers that be in the House," the sugar trust, leading Republican Senators and all who had aided in their undoing.

Burleson Attacks Hay.

Washington, March 12.—Secretary Hay was bitterly attacked in a speech by Representative Burleson of Texas for declining to ask the British authorities for passports whereby Rev. Hiram W. Thomas and wife of Chicago might pass through the British lines to distribute relief funds collected in Illinois for Boer women and children.

Mr. Hitt of Illinois made a spirited reply to Mr. Burleson, calling attention to the fact that the resolution calling upon Secretary Hay for an explanation had been referred to a committee, of which Mr. Burleson was a member. He said it was an apparent effort to prejudge the case before the evidence was in.

PASSPORT NOT WANTED.

"Dr. Thomas wants a military permit to visit the camps," continued Mr. Hitt. "He does not seek a passport. A passport should be issued him by the Department of State, and Secretary Hay promised not only to give Dr. and Mrs. Thomas passports, but special letters to our consular officers in South Africa."

Mr. Sulzer asked if the British authorities had not declined to allow the Red Cross to conduct their humane work in South Africa.

Mr. Hitt said such a statement had been made and had been denied; he did not know the facts.

"The information I have," declared Mr. Sulzer, "comes from the Boer commissioners in this country."

"I am not in communication with the British or the Boer officials," retorted Mr. Hitt. This ended the debate.

Hoar Favors Present System.

Washington, D. C., March 12.—Prior to consideration of the ship subsidy measure in the Senate yesterday a lively debate developed over an effort on the part of Mr. Berry of Arkansas to ascertain when the committee on privileges and elections might be expected to report to the Senate the resolution providing for the election of Senators by the direct vote of the people.

Mr. Hoar (Mass.), indicated his vigorous opposition to such a resolution on the ground that it would subvert the fundamental principles upon which the Senate, he said, was the greatest to the Supreme Court and to the United States Senate as the two great bodies of the government which were free from the influence of popular movements and popular excitement. The Senate, he said, was the greatest deliberative assembly in the world, and he believed it the duty of the people to stand firm before the proposition to strike down one of the two glories of the republic.

When the ship subsidy bill was taken up Mr. Mallory of Florida made an extended speech in opposition to the measure. He analyzed the bill carefully and held that there was no good reason for its enactment.

War Revenue Report.

Washington, March 12.—The Senate committee on finance did not complete the consideration of the war revenue repeal bill. A number of amendments were adopted, but they deal almost entirely with the phraseology, and the opinion is still expressed by members of the committee that the effect of the bill when reported from the committee will be the same as it was intended by the House. As the bill passed the House it took no cognizance of the reduction of 20 per cent made in the tobacco tax in the last session of Congress, the effect of which, it is believed by members of the finance committee, would be to reduce the tax to 45 per cent, whereas the intention was to place it at 35, the anti-war rate. The Senate amendment corrects this error.

Naval Cadet Candidates.

Washington, March 12.—Representative Hitt of Illinois announced the following selections for admission to the naval academy at Annapolis: Principal, Victor L. Phillips, Mount Carroll; first alternate, Carroll S. Bucher, Mount Carroll; second alternate, Floyd A. Key, Ridott; third alternate, Charles H. Lane, Precourt; fourth alternate, George P. Gill, Pecatonica, and fifth alternate, Richard P. McCullough, Galena. There is one vacancy to the credit of Mr. Hitt's district, and while all candidates named may take the examination, their records will be passed upon in the order in which they are designated and the first to meet the requirements mentally and physically will receive the appointment.

Readers of Current History and Modern Culture now have these two valuable magazines combined in one. The consolidation is announced at the beginning of the 12th volume of the former, the March number being clothed in a new and comedy cover and bearing the full title of Current History and Modern Culture. The publishers announce that the best features and entire editorial force of both magazines will be continued in the consolidated form. The events of the times will be chronicled in a comprehensive, impartial, and systematic manner; the fields of science, education, religion, literature, art, and music will be reviewed; and illustrations, attractive and instructive, will brighten the pages throughout. The March number opens with an article on "The President of New Cuba," by J. D. Whelpley, to accompany a strong frontispiece portrait. All the important topics of the day are presented in a very fully outlined table of contents. The new literary department, conducted by Nathan Haskell Dole, will find many appreciative readers. The increased number of sketch-maps, illustrative of points in the record of affairs, is worthy of special mention. Sample copy free on application. Address Current History Co., Boston, Mass.

The most inclusive and most keenly analytical sketches of public men which have been prepared during the past two years have been those of William Allen White. The humorous little episode between Mr. White and Mr. Thomas C. Platt, is still fresh in the public memory. Mr. White's sketch for March appears in the Cosmopolitan and is on the late President Harrison. It will be read with wide interest both the opponents and friends of that statesman.

It is well known that Professor Goldwin Smith was one of the most staunch and valuable English friends of this country during the War of Rebellion. Under the title of "England and the War of Secession" he contributes a valuable article to the March Atlantic, calling attention to the services rendered to the Union cause by English sympathizers with the North. From intimate personal acquaintance he portrays some of the leaders in this movement, such as Cobden, John Bright, Stuart Mill, and Thomas Hughes. Taking all the perplexing circumstances into consideration, Goldwin Smith is inclined to justify the attitude of the British government toward the United States during the progress of the war.

During the present session of Congress The Saturday Evening Post, of Philadelphia, will contain bi-weekly articles on National affairs by the former postmaster-general, Honorable Charles Emory Smith.

In Men and Measures at Washington Mr. Smith will discuss the great legislative and diplomatic questions of the day, explaining the news of the week and giving a clear presentation of National policies and politics. Mr. Smith's long familiarity with public affairs, his shrewd political insight and his brilliant literary style combine to make these papers of unusual interest.

Nobility Recommends Nervine.

The above portrait is that of Countess Mogelstod, of Chicago, Ill., whose gratitude for the benefit received from the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine prompted her to make this statement:

"It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to the very excellent merits of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Although I am past 80 years of age I find it soothes the tired brain, quiets the irritated nerves and insures restful sleep. I never feel contented without a bottle of it in the house." Nasal Catarrh quickly yields to treatment by Ely's Cream Balm, which is agreeably aromatic. It is received through the nostrils, cleanses and heals the whole surface over which it diffuses itself. Druggists sell the 50c. size; Trial size by mail, 10 cents. Test it and you are sure to continue the treatment.

Announcement.
To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation.

CATARRH

The treatment of Catarrh with antiseptic and astringent washes, lotions, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil. True, these give temporary relief, but the cavities and passages of the head and the bronchial tubes soon fill up again with mucus.

Taking cold is the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous acids and vapors which should pass off through the skin, are thrown back upon the mucous membrane or inner skin, producing inflammation and excessive flow of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood, and through the circulation reaches every part of the system, involving the Stomach, Kidneys and other parts of the body. When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes red, hearing affected and a constant ringing in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh. S. S. S. expels from the circulation all offensive matter, and when rich, pure blood is again coursing through the body the mucous membranes become healthy and the skin active, all the disagreeable, painful symptoms disappear, and a permanent, thorough cure is effected.

S. S. S. being a strictly vegetable blood purifier does not derange the Stomach and digestion, but the appetite and general health rapidly improve under its tonic effects. Write us about your case and get the best medical advice free. Book on blood and skin diseases sent on application.
